CREATED BY: Nathan Gutierrez, Management Assistant
DATE: 11/3/2022
WARD:
SUBJECT: Continue Youth Commission subcommittee presentations, discussion, and vote concerning the annual project topics under consideration for FY 2022-2023

STAFF RECOMMENDATION:

Staff recommends Youth Commission consideration, discussion, and final vote for the topic to be completed for the FY 2022-2023 annual project.

BACKGROUND:

At the October 24, 2022 special Youth Commission meeting, the Youth Commission heard presentations by three of the four previously established subcommittees on issues including:

1. Educating local students on the many extra curricular activities around the City including arts and sports to promote increased social interaction
2. Collaborate with JJ's Legacy regarding the importance of organ donation, with a focus on the "Got the Dot" campaign for recently licensed teen drivers
3. Collaborate with the California Highway Patrol (CHP) to educate teens on the importance of driver safety, including distraction-free driving, and knowledge of defensive driving techniques

The final presentation will provide information and consideration of a collaboration with the Applecore Project Inc. Bakersfield to plan and implement a donation drive of basic necessities for children living in hotels
